Course Description:

This course will focus on the social, cultural, political and economic history of the United States after the Civil War examining significant landmark political events as well as the everyday experiences of women, minorities, and other underrepresented groups. It emphasizes key issues in American politics and society since 1865 including reconstruction, the growth of big business; changes in the lives of farmers, workers, and immigrants; the rise of the city; the emergence of America as a world power; and reform movements among rural and urban labor, and among minority groups.

Course Goals:

Students will have the ability to read primary and secondary sources (including digital sources) with a critical eye and express these ideas effectively in course assessments

Students will have the skills to analyze a variety of different types of written texts, visual /material evidence or oral accounts, and identify how each text is shaped by author, audience, and the context in which they were constructed.

Students will demonstrate a broad understanding of the major events, people, and issues relevant to the U.S. historical narrative through exams, quizzes, and assignments.

Class Rules:

A summer course is an intense and fast-paced learning environment. Students must make a commitment to the course in order to earn a passing grade. To create a successful learning environment all students must adhere to the following rules:

- ✧ Students must complete all required activities within the time frame given
- ✧ Students must attend all zoom sessions or make alternative arrangements with the professor
- ✧ Students will lose points for all oom sessions missed/failure to participate when called
- ✧ please avoid chatting, not paying attention during zoom session
- ✧ cheating, not doing your own work, incomplete assignments may lead to failure

Attendance Policy:

Attendance in zoom sessions is mandatory. If an absence is unavoidable, arrangements must be made in advance to avoid penalty. UIBE policy requires a medical certificate to be excused. Any unexcused absences may impact the student's grade. Moreover, UIBE policy is that a student who has missed more than one-third of the class (6 class times) of a course without prior arrangement will fail.
