Course Description:

In this course students will be introduced to the historical, formal and theoretical components of film studies. We will pay special attention to film analysis and composition, and develop a vocabulary for talking about how films communicate ideas, engage audiences, and reflect culture. To accomplish these goals, we will watch films every day, in class, and discuss them using terms and concepts from the course readings.

Course Goals:

Develop familiarity with the technological and historical development of film from early cinema to contemporary blockbusters.
Understand and apply the formal vocabulary of film analysis and composition
Be conversant in theoretical questions related to film as an art form and as a technology for communication.

Required Textbook:

All readings will be electronically provided.

Grading Policy:

Online Possibility:

Due to the on-going pandemic, there is a possibility that in-person courses are changed to online ones. UIBE ISS will notify the students once the decision has been made.

If the in-person courses are to be changed to online courses, we will make a few adjustments:

1. Lecture: Each lecture will be uploaded on UIBE’s online learning platform on a daily basis. Students are required to watch them according to the course schedule.
2. Discussion: There will be an open session on ZOOM every week. The attendance of the discussion is important as it is part of your final score.
3. Office hours: I will release the office hours once the course starts. You are very welcome to send me emails to book my time. We will have video or audio calls through ZOOM. Please be noted to book them at least 3 days in advance.
