(2) the access code that came with your textbook or you can buy access online.

CONTACT ME

I am available through email and phone, but email is preferred. This is an online class so communication through email is very important! I will do my best to reply within 24 hours Monday through Friday. Please verify that your preferred email address in Canvas is accurate and working. If you have a question, ask! Please be clear with your comments, requests, and keep me informed if you have any questions or difficulties.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Course Methodology

The course is designed for online learning and all assignments will be completed through Connect. The schedule for the course is shown below and is also seen in Canvas thru the weekly Modules. Each week you have a number of readings, homework, and quizzes to complete. On some weeks you also have exams to complete. Assignments will all be through Connect so please make sure you have access during the first week to complete the assignments. The weekly assignments are due every Sunday by midnight (eastern daylight time zone) (except the last week when assignments are due on Friday 7/1).

Homework- Homework is for practice. You have unlimited attempts and will receive full credit as long as you complete the assignment by the due date.

Quizzes- Quizzes for each chapter are graded and you have ONE attempt, but there is no time limit.

Exams- The exams are graded with only one attempt. Exams also have a time limit of 90 minutes. Once you start the exam, the timer starts. You cannot go back to the exam after the 90 minutes.

Course Requirements

To succeed in the class, participants should have basic computer skills. You should be comfortable in how to send an email, navigate Canvas, and Connect.

It is expected that you take an active role in the learning of the material. To succeed in an online class you must be able to work independently, manage your time effectively, and stay organized. It is expected that you read all related material, as well as, the related chapter in the text on a weekly basis. You have the flexibility of completing the work at any time during the week. However, I recommend beginning the work early to allow time to digest the material and ask questions.

Academic Honesty

Please see the undergraduate catalog for the college's policy on academic honesty

Antiracism at FSU

At Framingham State University, faculty, staff, and students work together to sustain a learning, working, and living community free from hate, discrimination, harassment, and intolerance. We recognize the damaging effects of systemic racism—including policies, structures, and historic practices—on the experience and success of communities of color. Coming from different backgrounds and different levels of privilege, we can all affirm and engage in antiracist work.

Diversity of voices, and of minds, strengthens our ability to solve problems and to ask and answer questions about the world we share. As your instructor, I commit to upholding community values of inclusion, civility, accessibility, and mutual respect. I expect this class to commit to creating a community that affirms and welcomes all persons from diverse backgrounds and experiences, and supports the realization of everyone's potential. ^[SEP]
