Bridgewater State University

Duration: 22 December, 2022 - 16 January 2023

Instructor: Dr. Quoc Tran

Meeting Time and Place: Online Office

Course Credits: 3

Office Hours: by appointment

Required Textbooks:

Microeconomics (9th) edition by Daniel Rubinfeld and Robert Pindyck with myeconlab access.

What This Course is All About

This course provides the analytic tools of microeconomics, including:

How individuals make their consumption choices given their disposable income and goods' prices?

How firms make their production decision, given their available technologies and market conditions?

How various government policies affect market equilibrium and social welfare?

What happens to markets which are operated by a monopoly or oligopoly?

And many other issues if time permitted.

Class Format

This is an online class for the summer, which will provide lectures, videos, and organized discussions that allow students the possibility to learn the material from different perspectives. The instructor will be available online through Microsoft Teams to help with student's questions and concerns about the courses. Quizzes and problem sets will be uploaded on Blackboard.

Grading

Your grade will be based on the following:

- Homework (30%)
- 2 Exams (20% Each)
- Online Reading and Discussion (30%).

Myeconlab and Blackboard will be used extensively for homework and well as course materials such as lecture slides and exam reviews. Therefore, it is required that you have access to Myeconlab within the first week of the class.

Grading Scale: 93-100 A / 90-92 A- / 87-89 B+ / 83-86 B / 80-82 B- / 76-79 C+ / 69-75 C / 65-68 C- / 62-64 D+ / 58-61 D / 55-57 D- / 0-54 F

Unless computed in error, your final course grade will under no circumstance be changed.

Class Discussion and Participation: We will use Blackboard discussion board to discuss the weekly readings within the context of the theory learned. The purpose of these discussions is to two-fold:

Relating the theory of material developed in the reading;

To encourage you to develop a broader understanding of the economics system and institutions.
